Parichita is an Associate Partner at Desai & Diwanji's New Delhi / Gurgaon office.

Parichita's practice focuses primarily on regulatory disputes in the energy infrastructure field.

Parichita is a seasoned lawyer specializing in energy disputes, with extensive experience representing and advising clients across the power sector. Her practice covers advising and representing electricity generating companies (both renewable and non-renewable), distribution licensees, and transmission licensees etc.

With a strong litigation background, Parichita regularly appears before electricity regulators across India, the Appellate Tribunal for Electricity, various High Courts, and the Supreme Court. In addition to dispute resolution, she also provides strategic advisory services on energy projects, ensuring regulatory compliance and efficient project execution. She brings a deep understanding of the evolving energy landscape, offering clients pragmatic and commercially sound legal solutions.

She works closely with her clients, who value her responsiveness, experience and problem solving abilities.

This is a general overview of Parichita's practice. Please contact her to receive a more detailed statement of her experience in any particular area of her practice.
